Labor Organizations in Gigantic Protest Against Beer Prohibition

LOAN COMPANY READY FOR WORK

STARTS UNDER MOST FAVORABLE CONDITIONS AND PROMISES TO BE A WONDERFUL SUCCESS.

The Home Building and Loan Association of Ada is now ready for business. The charter has been granted by the secretary of state, all forms printed, and the necessary stock sold to put the company on a firm and solid foundation. The directors of the company come from the leading business and professional men of the city and at their next meeting which will be held next week they will choose the officers who art to manage the affairs of the new business.

The idea for organizing a home building association in this city has been incubating for years, but it took definite shape only about two months ago. Captain L. D. Abney, who is one of the most public spirited young men of the city, gave impetus to the movement when he came to this city to live about the first of April. He with John P. McKinley arranged the necessary papers and solicited the citizenship in placing the stock. These two men more than any others are due the credit for starting the business off under such favorable auspices.

The Home Building and Loan Association of Ada is a patriotic organization as much as financial. The men who have developed the company to its present status have done so gratis and the total expense of the business to date is less than $20. Not a cent has been paid for selling the stock nor for any other purpose except for legal publications which the law requires. And no officer or director of the company expects to profit in salaries until the business reaches the stage where their whole time and attention to the business is necessary. The object of the association is to help men secure homes, for everybody knows that the stability of the American government as well as all governments lies in a home owning citizenship. No red flag is ever waved by men who own their homes and the Home Building and Loan Association of Ada, will work to this end whether profits are made or not.

The Home Building and Loan Association of Ada is fashioned after the Farm and Home Company of Nevada, Mo. As argument to get the local citizens to take hold of it, it was only necessary to point to the success of similar companies over the state. Notable among these was the Norman association which is now capitalized at $750,000.00 with stock all sold. This company started with much less capital than the company at Ada has and while it has been a phenomenal success from a patriotic viewpoint it has also paid dividends of 14 per cent.

United States Soldiers Were Dare-Devils

By the Associated Press

FORT WORTH, Texas, June 14.—The keen-eyed youths from the United States who helped turn the tide on the western battle front were indefatigable fighters—daredevils with the fire of youth.

But take "Dad" Lowden; his 60 years became as 20 as he went tearing into action. And he saw considerable action, as his two wound stripes attest.

The pals of this young old doughboy called him "Dad," but the company records listed him as Private Robert Lowden from Albuquerque, New Mexico. He is a cousin of Governor Lowden of Illinois.

Just back from France, "Dad" arrived at the Camp Bowie hospital to recuperate. "Like recuperating from a vacation," is the way he sees it, for wars always did appeal to him as vacations.

Back in 1898, he took his first "war vacation" in Uncle Sam's service fighting Spain; then in 1916, when Mexican trouble developed, he enlisted and went to the Texas border.

When the United States entered the European war, "Dad" hurried to the recruiting station, beating out his two sons and a son-in-law for the privilege of first representing the family in the gigantic conflict.

They all got in quickly, the sons are still in the army and the son-in-law is serving with the naval forces abroad. None of the boys have been wounded, however, and that's why "Dad" chuckles when he looks at those two wound stripes. That's one thing he's "got on them," he says.

MORE RIOTING AT MUSKOGEE

ARMED GUARDS ARE DRIVEN AWAY BY ANGRY MOB: SERVICE IS ENTIRELY STOPPED.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., June 14.—Although all street cars were running here yesterday, the service was discontinued last night under orders from Sheriff James Robbins after two cars had been stoned, and crowds which surged through the downtown streets threatened violence to each car as it approached.

The special officer and motorman on one car were attacked by a crowd of sympathizers and driven from the car. After chasing the two some distance the mob amused itself by throwing rocks through the car windows.

"We Walk" Boycott.

One thousand union labor men, including railroad trainmen and shop men marched through the streets last night with banners, urging the public to support the strikers. Strikers and sympathizers gathered about down-town corners all yesterday wearing "We Walk" cards.

Traffic was light on all lines because of the boycott of union men and their families and fear of others to ride under existing conditions.

There was an armed guard on each car throughout Friday.

Claude Conally, state labor commissioner, is still here trying to bring about a settlement.

Partial service was maintained throughout the daylight hours with three armed guards on each car.

Police Chief Surrounded.

Another car was stopped by men who overtook it in two automobiles and compelled the guards to abandon it.

Chief of Police Hughes, who was the center of a hostile demonstration at the traction company's downtown terminal, last night ordered the guards to shoot anyone entering the car "with hostile intent" when service is resumed to-day.

We are enlisted in a great cause.

We seek to perpetuate the democratic institutions for which our men have given their lives. We are ready to assume the place of leadership which our profession must take and we have faith in the response which the people of our country will give in support of our program."

Bolshevik Troops Moving.

London, June 14.—Russian Bolshevik troops are reported to have crossed Galician territory and are approaching Tarnopol with the evident intention of joining the Hungarian Bolsheviks when the Hungarian frontier is reached, according to a dispatch from Vienna.

VICKERS-VIMY NOW IN FLIGHT

STARTED SPECTACULAR TRANS-ATLANTIC FLIGHT THIS AFTERNOON REGARDLESS OF ADVERSE WINDS.

By the Associated Press

ST. JOHNS, N. F., June 14.—The Vickers-Vimy Biplane started on its trans-Atlantic flight at 4:30 this afternoon, Greenwich time. The machine carried two men, Captain Jack Alcock, Britisher, as pilot, and Lieut. Whitten Brown, American navigator.

The former attempts at trans-Atlantic flights held the people of this nation at breathless attention for more than a week at a time, and it is expected that the flight of the Vickers-Vimy will be none the less spectacular.

Wireless equipped craft afloat in the Atlantic will keep the world informed of the progress of the navigators, and the machine is equipped with all manner of the latest alighting devices.

Railroad Telegraphers Refuse to Handle W. U. And Postal Messages

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO, June 14.—The Commercial Telegrapher's Union strike, now in its fourth day, was given most valuable assistance today when all railroad telegraphers throughout the country tentatively joined the strike by refusing to handle messages of the Western Union and Postal companies.

The companies stated, in connection with the decision of the railroad telegraphers, that their action would not interfere materially with the wire traffic for the very good reason that a very small percentage of their business was handled through railroad offices.

Western Union officials, while expressing belief that the order would be rescinded, predicted that its effect would not have serious results. They estimated that the 23,000 points handling commercial business over railroad wires do not average more than five messages each a day.

Meanwhile, officers of the commercial telegraphers' union of America, continued to receive reports indicating that the strike is spreading.

S. J. Konenkamp, international president of the union, said the number of strikers had reached 22,000; that the strike of the electrical workers set for next Monday would add 130,000 workers to the list of those idle, and that by early next week telephone service in many cities and towns would be greatly impaired through a walk-out of telephone operators.

The brokers' division of the telegraphers' union has been asked to take action. Meetings were to be held today at which it will be decided whether to strike in sympathy.

Claims of strike leaders that the walkout is rapidly spreading were refuted by officials of commercial companies who said they were accepting business without restrictions and that conditions were practically normal.

Railroad Excursions Taboo.

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 14.—So as not to interfere with the transportation of soldiers now returning from France in ever increasing numbers, Director General of Railroads Hines ordered that all railroad equipment for excursion purposes to be limited to absolute minimum. The order was made today and becomes effective at once.

GERMANS MUST SIGN OR FIGHT

RESUMPTION OF HOSTILITIES JUNE 21 IF GERMANS REFUSE TO SIGN THE PEACE TREATY.

By the Associated Press

PARIS, June 14.—Confidence was expressed last night by British, French and American delegates to the peace conference that the treaty would finally be signed without difficulty.

It has been determined that the allied reply to the German counter-proposals be delivered to the Germans Monday, with the provision that they be given two days in which to answer, with three days of grace before suspending the armistice.

It is declared that there will be a resumption of hostilities on Saturday, June 21, if the Germans refuse to sign. This will mean that the war is not ended and that the allied armies will have to get back to fighting.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 14.—Governor Lister, of this state, died in the city of Seattle this morning. Details are lacking at this time.

HUNDRED TO HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND LABOR REPRESENTATIVES PROTESTING IN WASHINGTON TODAY.

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 14.—The forces of organized labor in this country are staging a gigantic protest against prohibition insofar as it pertains to light wines and beer. Protest will be brought before congress late today in a demonstration by a throng, estimated by the leaders, to number from a hundred to a hundred and fifty thousand, composed of representatives and members of union organizations from this and scores of other cities throughout the country.

The thirty-ninth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, now in session at Atlantic City, N. J., has gone on record already as being opposed to the prohibition of light wines and beer, and it is very probable that the demonstration contemplated today is inspired by the action of that body.

Thousands of union laborers are employed in the breweries and distilleries of the country, and the various prohibition measures that have taken effect during the past few years have considerably reduced the ranks of the various unions with which they have been connected.

As a general policy the unions have been opposed to prohibition, especially as concerns beer, and on many previous occasions Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has spoken from the platform and in public print against the prohibition measures put into operation by the federal government during the war.

The president, it will be remembered, advised congress in his last message to that body that they repeat the war time prohibition measure insofar as it related to light wines and beer, and the presumption is that the question will come up for consideration at this session.

In answer to your inquiry as to how we like the News, we wish to say that we are proud of it. It is taking on the air of a real metropolitan paper, and is one that will reflect credit on Ada and Pontotoc county wherever it may go.

PARLOR BOLSHEVISTS

By Dr. WILLIAM H. HOBBS,

Member of the faculty of the University of Michigan and of the Executive Committee of the National Security League.

PARLOR BOLSHEVISTS — DC Box who has lived close to nature, or twin brother, pacifism, finds support at the bottom and at the top of the intellectual and social scale—among the workers and those intellectuals who are sufficiently remote from its workings to be easily led astray through purely academic discussions.

The great body of the intelligent middle class is the hope of the nation in every great crisis of its affairs, and in America, at least, this body has been practically untouched. The sloughing off of Bolshevism from the diseased body politic of Russia, due to virus skillfully injected by Germany, still threatens the western nations, even though the sound middle class has been found to be singularly immune to its poison.

"Half-Baked Philosophy."

More menacing than the sediment which has separated from the mass at the bottom is the froth which floats upon its upper surface, the parlor Bolshevik with his great power to carry infection to others.

Shielded from the hard knocks of the world, often in a university position, he invokes in a freedom of university teaching whenever attempts are made to have him conform to regulations elsewhere in force. He either cannot or will not see that freedom of speech does not grant license to preach doctrines aiming at the overthrow of our form of government. His half-baked political philosophy unfits him to comprehend that sedition, treason, or the advocacy of a despotism of the proletariat, lie outside the field of legitimate discussion where the youth of the land are being trained for future service.

If he has been trained for research, the professor is peculiarly prone to become the easy victim of propagandists who claim to be idealists and who go far afield from beaten trails. The open-mindedness necessary for reaching unbiased judgments on every question has in his case far too often been elevated into a fetish until the power of reaching any decision upon controverted questions has become atrophied or lost entirely. It is notorious how many intellectuals are without clear-cut views upon many of the most vital questions of the day. On the other hand, a man

HOLDENVILLE TO GET GOVT POST OFFICE BUILDING

Holdenville Tribune: In a recent letter received from Hon. Tom D. McKeown it would seem that Holdenville is in line for a government building in which to carry on her postal business. If such a building were secured, the citizens of Holdenville ought to have some say as to where it should be put. That the present post office is in an inconvenient place as could be possible to place it, is recognized and complained of by two-thirds of the citizens of the town.

A post office building built by the government would be one of the things the people would greatly appreciate and if Congressman McKeown succeeds in getting such a building here, he would place his constituents in and around the town under grateful obligations to him.

Mr. McKeown's recent speech in congress favoring the removal of Indian restrictions was timely and sensible. This speech commanded the attention of congress and will no doubt result in some good coming to the Indian who is capable of handling his own business. So may we expect something to come from his recommendations in other matters.

If our congressman introduces a bill for a post office in Holdenville, we will be very likely to get it in the near future.

Following is a part of a letter received in answer to an inquiry from the editor:

Mr. J. H. Clawson,
Holdenville, Oklahoma.

Dear Friend:

Replies to your letter of the 26th inst. beg to advise that no appropriation has yet been made for the building at Ada, although a report was made from the committee recommending $10,000.00 for a site. This was introduced at the last session. The policy of the Committee on Public Buildings of the House has been to recommend one public building for each district, but there has not been a public building bill passed for the past six years. Their recommendations are based upon the post office receipts.

I introduced a bill in the 64th Congress for a post office building at Holdenville and will introduce a bill for Holdenville at this congress, and you may be assured that I will do everything I can to push the matter. I am stating conditions here so you will understand the difficulty with which this matter is confronted.

With sincere good wishes, I am

Francis Notes

From the Wigwam: A delegation of Francis citizens interviewed the lighting makers at Byng recently and came back with quite an encouraging report. Now, that the war is over, material is more easily obtained and the hope is held out that after Seminole is fixed up, Francis will next receive consideration. The high mogul of the power plant will be interviewed the latter part of the week and it is hoped that some definite promise as to a date of installation may be obtained.

Not long ago a highbrow remarked there was nothing here for them and they were going to spend as much as their time in Ada as possible. It is quite true our little village isn't full of roof gardens, cabarets and the like but we would like to say to this knocker that Francis has wonderful natural scenery, a river, churches and other places to interest anyone who likes the right kind of pastime. When a person gets their daily bread here and earns their clothes they should be content with the place and be a booster instead of a knocker.

The boys were also very accurate with the bow and arrow, their success in killing fish by this method being wonderful, it being nothing

The Great American Game

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO, June 14.—George Sisler, the St. Louis Star, made the best showing in the American league during the past week. According to averages released today and which include Wednesday's game this collegian not only advanced from ninth to fourth place among the batters, but took first honors as run maker from Weaver, Chicago. He registered 31 times. The St. Louisian also went into a tie with Roth, Philadelphia, for total base honors with 80, the pair relieving Ty Cobb of the honor. Sisler also has the distinction of being a member of the leading home run trio—Sisler, Ruth of Boston and Roth. Each made 4 homers.

Cobb retained his lead among the batters, although he suffered a slight slump. He is hitting .355.

Chapman, Cleveland, and Vitt, Boston, made three sacrifices each and continued their tie at 17.

Johnston, Cleveland, has been cutting loose on the paths during the past week and has dehroned Eddie Collins of Chicago, king of base stealers. Johnston had pilfered 14 bases, compared to Collins' 13.

Leading batters for 15 or more games: Cobb, Detroit, .355; Veach, Detroit, .351; Johnston, Cleveland, .346; Sisler, St. Louis, .345; Rice, Washington, .340; Weaver, Chicago, .333; Bodie, New York, .333; Schago, Boston, .333; Peckinpaugh, New York, .330; Gedeon, St. Louis, .330.

Gavy Cravath, Philadelphia, who is said by most pitchers in the National league to have no known weakness while at the plate, continued to lead the batters in that organization. The big slugger who hits any kind of pitching has an average of .421 for 34 games. This mark is the result of 44 hits in 102 times at bat, including 13 doubles, 2 triples and 5 homers. In addition to being out in front among the batters, Cravath went into a tie for total base honors with Zack Wheat, Brooklyn, and Kauff, New York, with 76, the trio displacing Doyle, New York.

Williams, Philadelphia, added another Homer to his string, and leads with 6. Myers, Brooklyn, remained at the head of the sacrifice hitters with 12 and Bigbee, Pittsburgh, leader of base stealers, pilfered another base and now has 13.

Leading batters for 15 or more games: Cravath, Philadelphia, .431; Young, New York, .342; Wingo, Cincinnati, .339; Roush, Cincinnati, .338; McCarthy, New York, .333; Williams, Philadelphia, .331; Doyle, New York, .326; Kilduff, Chicago, .318; Groh, Cincinnati, .311; Meusel, Philadelphia, .308.

The honor of leading run maker in the American Association held last week by Brief, Kansas City, is being shared by Becker and W. Miller, team-mates of last week's leader. They have scored 29 times each. Hendryx, Louisville, continued to lead the batters with a mark of 387, and increased his number of total bases to 75. Brief's four homers continued him in the lead in that department, while J. McCarthy, Louisville, leads the sacrifices with 15. Smyth, Milwaukee, Good, Kansas City and Bescher, Louisville, caught up to Reiley, Indianapolis in stolen bases. They are tied at 13.

COTTON GIN FIRESCAN BE PREVENTED

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 14.—

The main cause of the frequent and destructive fires in the cotton gins of the South is static or frictional electricity—an element easily controlled by simple methods. That was shown conclusively in recent investigations by the United States Department of Agriculture, through its Bureau of Chemistry, which now has issued a circular telling how to prevent blazes from static electricity, and also giving suggestions for the prevention of fires from matches or other foreign material in cotton, from friction, from cotton hanging to ribs in the gin, or from other possible causes of less importance.

So frequent were the mysterious gin fires in 1917—the losses in Texas alone that year being estimated at a million dollars—that rumors of alien enemy activity spread through the country, and Uncle Sam sent several experts to Texas to determine the cause and the preventive! The experts found that most of the fires were caused by sparks of static electricity, but that it was easy enough to prevent the sparks from doing damage by the simple expedient of running wires from the gin machinery to the ground.

How to "ground" gin machinery is the chief thing that the experts have to tell in the new circular, "Cotton Gin Fires," numbered 28, which may be obtained free by application to the Bureau of Chemistry of the department. Diagrams show the best ways of wiring.

LESSON FOR JUNE 15

PRAYER.

LESSON TEXTS—Matt. 6:5-15; Luke 13:

GOLDEN TEXT—Be careful for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God—Phil. 4:6.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Gen. 18:23-33; Ex. 32:31, 32; Matt. 26:30-46; Luke 11:1-13; John 17:1-26; 1 Thess. 6:17; James 5:16-18.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Talking with the Heavenly Father.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Teaches How to Pray.

INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—Prayer a Privilege and a Duty.

SENIOR AND YOUTH TOPIC—The Christian Conception of Prayer.

I. The Proper Motive in Prayer (Matt. 6:5-8).

The righteousness which counts with God is doing right deeds with the right motive. Righteous as the act of praying is it may be an abomination unto God:

1. If it be to be seen and heard of men (v. 5). Much of the public praying is false—when there is more thought of what the people think than of what God thinks. In praying the individual is dealing with God, therefore if he be engaged in it to attract men's attention it is blasphemous. It is not wrong to pray on the street corner and in the synagogues; that which is condemned is doing it to be seen of men.

2. If there be the use of vain repetitions (v. 7). This does not mean that we should ask but once, for we have examples of Christ and of Paul praying three times for the same thing (Matt. 25: 39-46; II Cor. 12:7-8), but meaningless repetitions as done by the heathen. The reason assigned is that "your Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask him" (v. 8).

God is pleased with true prayer (v. 6). We should have a real desire for fellowship with God. Since prayer is a transaction of the soul with God, we should go to our inner chamber, where only God can hear, and there commune with him.

II. The Model Prayer (Matt. 6:9-15).

1. Right relationship. "Our Father." Only those who have become children of God by faith in Jesus Christ (Gal. 3:26) can pray aright.

2. Right attitude. "Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come." When we realize that we have been delivered from the power of darkness and translated into the kingdom of his dear Son (Col. 1:13) by being made the children of God we cannot help pouring out our souls to him in gratitude and praise, longing for the coming of his kingdom.

3. Right spirit (1) That of trust which looks to him for daily bread. (2) That of love which results in the forgiveness of others. God will not listen to the prayer of the one who has an unforgiving spirit. (3) That of holiness which moves us to pray not to be led in temptation, and longs to be delivered from the evil one.

4. The ascription of praise. "Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever."

III. Persistence in Prayer (Luke 18:1-8).

The teaching of this parable is that men ought always to pray and not to faint (v. 1). The context shows that praying should be the business of the church while the Lord is absent. Having referred to the coming of the Lord at the close of the preceding chapter he uses this parable to enforce the obligation of the church under the figure of a widow crying day and night unto God. Though the unjust judge had neither fear of God nor regard for man he avenged her of her enemies. Much more, then, will the tender loving Father, God, avenge his own elect (v. 7). God is pleased with those who persistently pray, or, as popularly expressed, "pray through."

IV. The Proper Attitude in Prayer (Luke 18:9-14).

This is brought out in striking contrast by two men praying. The Pharisee's sense of self practically excluded the consciousness of God. The poor publican had a most keen sense of God, and therefore sought his mercy. The Pharisee presented personal credentials, while the publican cast himself upon God's mercy. The publican was justified, while the Pharisee was rejected. Let us come into the presence of God with humility, for God is holy.

Easy to Commit Sin.

It is a great deal easier to commit a second sin than it was to commit the first, and a great deal harder to repent of a second, than it was to repent of the first.—Benjamin Whelchote.

For One Another.

The will of God respecting us is that we shall live by each other's happiness, and life. . . Men help each other by their joy, not by their sorrow. They are not intended to stay themselves for each other, but to strengthen themselves for each other.—Ruskin.

To Have Knowledge.

If we would indeed have knowledge and flourish, we must water the tender plants of it with holiness.—John Smith.

Report From Ada, For The Frisco Railroad

The Frisco railroad, as announced in yesterday's News, is interested in the industrial development of Ada, and the industrial agent of this road has asked for complete information of the condition of our town. This information was compiled for Mr. McNair, the local Frisco agent; by O. N. Walker, secretary of the Commercial Club, and is a replete with interesting facts that will not only satisfy the railroad company but will be worth much to all others who seek an ideal location for a home or business.

Mr. McNair says the report gotten out by Mr. Walker is the most exhaustive of its kind he has ever seen and that the thanks of the whole city are due the popular commercial secretary for his untiring work in placing our city before the country in such an inviting manner.

The report is in the shape of a questionnaire sent out by the railroad company. That part of it which can be published is given below:

Chemical Analysis of Byrds Mill spring water, Ada, Okla., furnished to commissioner of public works of city of Ada, April 16, 1919, by the M. K. & T. Railway Co.

First Christian Church.

A good Sunday school assembled last Sunday and a lively interest was manifested. We were glad to see a goodly number of students from the Normal at our Sunday school, and a cordial welcome is extended to all who come. The time of beginning is 9:45. Teachers should be present five or ten minutes before time to open the school.

Morning church worship begins at 11 o'clock. In view of the coming union revival there will be an exchange of pulpits Sunday morning. The members are urged to be present to hear whatever message the minister may have to give. Last Sunday five persons took membership.

It was announced from the pulpit that it has been decided to build a new church home. The announcement was received with interest and joy. It is probable that the erection of this building will begin in the not distant future. The trustees were made responsible for working out some definite plans to be presented to the church for consideration.

The Christian Endeavor society meets regularly at 7:30. We had a fine meeting last Sunday evening. It was well attended and it was good to see a number of new faces with us.

How can we have the heart to ask the railroads to put on more trains when they are losing $1,200,000,000 a year now? That is what Hines, who is boss on the job for the government, is asking congress to provide to operate the railroads above what they have taken in. Where is all this money to come from?

ANENT THE BOND ISSUE.

While it seems that the city will be compelled to wait until the end of the month, for the engineer's report, before doing anything toward launching a campaign for a bond issue to make the necessary water main and sewer improvements before street paving can be commenced in certain central sections, the fact remains that we are simply standing still.

Whatever may be the attitude of the people of Ada regarding the spending of money for public improvements (and we are all anxious to be economical), it is certain that the city stands in need of these improvements worse than anything it has ever needed in the past.

It has been shown that petitions are already in for more than forty blocks of paving (and no one will dispute the necessity of even much more paving than that), yet the paving cannot be done until water main and sewer construction has been placed that will serve for all time to come. It is also a fact that bonds will have to be voted before the money can be secured for this work.

This brings us to the point where you and I, Mr. Ada Citizen, are involved. We cannot rush the engineer, but we can begin to study the situation and be prepared to make a hard campaign for the bonds.

This is one bond issue that should be unanimous, but the fact that they have not all been so in the past leaves the question a mooted one. It also makes it the duty of every citizen who does realize the seriousness of the situation to get on the job now and begin to boost for the bonds now.

A farmer paid $12 for a little roll of hog wire the other day. We asked him if that was not a little high for fencing. He said, "No, I just sold 13 sheets for $300." And that's the way it goes. Everyone is giving the price a boost. We wonder how high one can build an Eiffel price tower before it topples over.

THE SPIRIT OF SERVICE.

The war has taught us some good lessons, and none better than the one which emphasized the fact that service, not self-interest, lies at the very basis of world progress. Without this spirit of service regardless of self-interest, we could not have won this war; and the same spirit is greatly needed now as we begin to reconstruct and readjust our business enterprises on a peace basis.

It has been held and with some show of truth, that inasmuch as the basis of business is gain, its fundamental principle is essentially selfish—not too evident, of course, but nevertheless it may as well be understood that men are not in business for their health.

But war has shown us an entirely opposite principle in society's demand for service even to the extent of sacrifice, and the demand was almost universally honored. It is well for us all that we do not forget this lesson as we go about our affairs in re-establishing business on a peace basis. We observed it during dark and anxious days; it is no less important now.

It is just as true in peace as it is in war that society's first demand is for service; and it will require the individual with gain if it is able to do so, but service it must have, with loss perhaps as the reward.

This is the lesson of the ages, recognized perhaps only in extremity, but none the less abiding. Wherefore, the merchant, the farmer, the banker, and the lawyer may as well understand that the first obligation resting upon them is honest and adequate service in the field they occupy and to the constituency that supports them.

This is not mere gush, nor is it mixing sentiment with business. This much of sentiment is business, for we may as well accept the fact that if we exploit the customer, putting gain ahead of service, it is only a question of time until he will exert his rights, inquire into our methods and the motives that lie behind them, and get back at us.

Say what we please, there is a new ethical standard in the world, which is to demand that everyone render a full equivalent for what he gets and that his transactions shall be open and above board.

The best way to meet these conditions is to establish honest service—not to hunt for devious ways that will "get by." The days are over for exploiting the consumer. On the contrary, his needs and his tastes must be studied, and his patronage and good will must be cultivated as the very basis of business.

A Kansas soldier just home from France says his idea of heaven is a Kansas wheat field just turning yellow. When he compares the size of the average wheat field in Kansas with the little patches of wheat he saw in France it is no wonder he loves Kansas more than he loves France. There is so much more of it to love, you know.

The Republicans in the senate say that Wall Street has a copy of the peace treaty and that no one in the senate has one. Horrors! And we can remember when these same Republican senators thought nothing was too good to give Wall Street. How the times are changed.

Nearly all of these bomb throwers have foreign names, names full of x's and z's. That is a plain tip that we ought to restrict immigration.

Muskogee county assessments are up four million dollars this year. Just about three per cent of the bank deposits are in for assessment.

The State Press

Star-Democrat: Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas, who has made a million dollars out of his string of farm papers, is now publishing a series of articles denouncing profiteers.

Oklahoman: After a look at the Oklahoma soldiers and their bayonets Thursday, the general opinion was that the Hun had considerable reason to run.

Star-Democrat: If your sense of humor needs developing, just consider an editor with a five hundred dollar shop telling a farmer with a fifty thousand dollar farm how to make farming pay.

Star-Democrat: Beer goes out of existence the first of next month and face powder should by all means go with beer. It may not do so much harm as beer but it tastes a blamed sight worse.

Star-Democrat: It is rather difficult to get heated up over the crimes of the kaiser when one thinks of the so-called conscientious objectors who received honorable discharges at full pay. The parties responsible for that infamy will later learn exactly what "full pay" means. Stick a pin here.

Star-Democrat: It was perfectly proper for those Oklahomans at Newport News to render high honors to General O'Neal. He deserved it, all right. But if we had been at the gangway, we would have yelled just a little louder for the doughboys who carried rifles, slept in shell holes, and stormed machine guns. They are the real heroes of this war.

Pittsburg County Guardian: One Oklahoma county has decided to erect a museum as a memorial to her soldier boys. Pittsburg county is going this one better. She is going to build a splendid court house, big as half a dozen museums, and dedicate the whole works to the brave lads of this county. It will contain a museum recording the part taken by our soldier boys in the war, and will be an everyday reminder to the people of the county and the public generally of their patriotic services in the war.

Sudden Millions.

Oklahoma City News: Joe Duke, the poor Texas farmer who has become a multi-millionaire through striking oil, says he will permit his son but one "extravagance"—the giving his family everything they require to make them happy.

Poor Joe! He does not understand that that is the extravagance which, almost invariably, is fatal to family happiness. The odds are high that Joe's sudden millions will ruin his family in spite of all he can do.

Those who acquire great wealth through long years of heart-breaking effort usually find that their families are without the joy of an-

ADA BASEBALL TEAM ROUNDING INTO SHAPE

A good crowd of fans appeared on the compress grounds yesterday in answer to the summons in the News for men to play on the Ada baseball team. Manager Dixon says they are lining up in good shape and expect to play at Allen tomorrow week and at Ada probably the next Sunday.

The Fair Park is to be the place where the games will take place in Ada. Although the mayor is not opposed to games for fun being played on Sunday, he is opposed to games for profit, and it is likely the teams cannot play inside the city limits. The fair grounds do not come under the city's jurisdiction.

A lot of practice playing will be done next week as the managers of the team are determined to have a winner and if this is accomplished much practice is necessary.

THE TOWN GOSSIP

By MILTON LESTER

I WAS hard at work.
YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.
TRYING TO write.
SOME STUFF for the paper.
AND THE phone bell.
STARTED TO ring.
AND I picked it up.
AND A lady's voice said:
"I WANT two cans of peas!"
AND I said:
"WHAT, AGAIN?"
AND SHE must have recognized
MY VOICE.
AND SHE said, "Oh!"
AND I hung up.
AND WENT back.
TO WORK again.
AND IN about half a minute,
THE OLD phone.
RANG AGAIN.
AND I took up the receiver.
AND CHANGED my voice.
AND SAID:
"MADAME, YOU want.
"TWO CANS of peas.
AND SHE said:
"GOOD GRACIOUS!"
"HOW DID you know?"
AND I told her.
THAT IT was all over town.
AND THAT if she didn't hurry.
IT WOULD be.
ALL OVER Arkansas.
AND I guess.
SHE'D HEARD enough.
AND HUNG up.
THE RECEIVER.
BEFORE I got through.
AND THAT was the last.
I HEARD of her.
AND I hope.
THAT SHE got her peas.
AND DIDN'T choke on them.
I THANK you.

S-h-h-h! Don't Tell Creel What Brother Does With Literature

SEATTLE, Wash., June 12.—When Geo. Creel made out his mailing lists he didn't forget the name of Herbert Creel of Seabeck, Wash.

So every time a pamphlet or other item of publicity goes out from the bureau of public information at its long journey across the continent to the publicity director's brother.

And each is a little missionary! For to Brother George, Brother Herbert is a backslider.

The truth of the matter is—politically the Creel brothers don't agree. Herbert Creel is a republican. Since he first became intimately acquainted with the ballot box he has cast his vote for the G. O. P. And he has even gone so far as to attain no little repute in the northwest as a stump orator.

Back in Washington, Brother George works for a democratic administration as head of an important bureau.

Papers Into Fire.

In the cabin on his ranch, where Herbert Creel has been helping Uncle Sam by raising things, it is necessary to build fires. There's the kitchen range and the parlor stove and the smokeless fires. Oh! there are lots of fires needed on a properly conducted farm, and it takes paper to make fires burn.

That's where most of Brother George's "Literature" goes after it has found its way to Seabeck.

But strangest of all, both the Creel boys began life as democrats. The sons of Captain Henry Clay Creel who fought under Stonewall Jackson in the Civil war, they were raised radical democrats. It was at the Centennial exposition in Philadelphia, 1876, Herbert Creel says he suffered his change of heart. And he further claims he has repented.

It might be said, though, that there is little mention of their political differences in their correspondence. The Creels are brothers in spirit as well as name.

Runs "Model Farm."

Up in Washington—at Seabeck on the Hood canal, to be exact—Herbert Creel is achieving his life's ambition in running a model farm.

For more than twenty years he has been a real westerner and counts among the most interesting experiences of his life a debate with a democratic speaker which lasted for six nights in various northwestern towns.

Herbert Creel was born in 1861 in Jefferson City, Mo. Farming and the real estate game alternately claimed him, but his pleasantest occupation is getting votes for the G. O. P.

And nowadays, a smile flickers over his face every time he builds a fire.

Mrs. J. L. Huber and her sister, Mrs. S. F. Whitman, who is visiting from Stillwater, will leave Sunday for Hannibal, Mo., to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bibb.

Mrs. G. W. Smith and daughter, Miss Eva Mae of Glendora, Miss., are visiting—the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hughes and other relatives.

Mrs. Laura Blackburn has returned from McAlester where she has been visiting her sister-in-law Mrs. D. W. Dunnigan who accompanied her home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Seiver are the guests of the latter's niece, Mrs. B. H. Friel, and family. Mr. Seiver is agent for the Rock Island railroad at Holdenville.

If you are a Methodist somewhere, the thing for you to do is to join the Methodist Church in Ada. That church is asking for a member for each day during the month of June.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jackson and children of Florence, Ala., are the guests of their mother, Mrs. Sallie Edmiston, who lives on West Fourteenth street. They arrived in the city yesterday.

Miss Johnny says she spent the entire day Friday with her brother, Stuart Anderson. He expects to be home by the middle of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Case have been trying for several months to rent a home for temporary use until they decided on a permanent location, but so far they have been unable to find a house for the desired purpose.

S. P. Holt, formerly of the Roff Eagle, was in the city today. Mr. Hunt spent nearly twelve months on the other side and has recently been discharged. He is in this county on a visit to his mother who lives at Roff. Mr. Hunt is owner of a weekly paper at Des Moines, New Mexico. He will return to his business there in a few days.

SOURCE OF ADA'S WATER SUPPLY

Where Wheat, Corn and Cotton Grow in the Same Field; Where Cattle in Great Herds Graze Upon a Thousand Hills; Where the Oil Spouts From the Earth in Many Valleys, and the People and Banks Have Money to Burn!

THE CITY OF ADA

Is the Railroad, Industrial and Educational Center of Southern Oklahoma and the County Seat of Pontotoc County.

STREET SCENES IN ADA

ADA has the largest cement manufacturing plant in the world; one of the largest glass manufacturing plants in America; three main lines of railroad; cotton oil mill; compress; ice plant; gins; stores; garages and other lines of business galore, BUT THERE IS ROOM FOR MORE!

The city gets its water supply from an artesian spring which bubbles in all its purity from the mountain side twelve miles away, which makes it one of the healthiest cities in the whole state of Oklahoma.

In close proximity to the city is an inexhaustible supply of natural gas; oil wells are being brought in daily; we have glass sand, lime, brick and cement shale to last for generations, and a great deposit of asphalt for paving and other purposes.

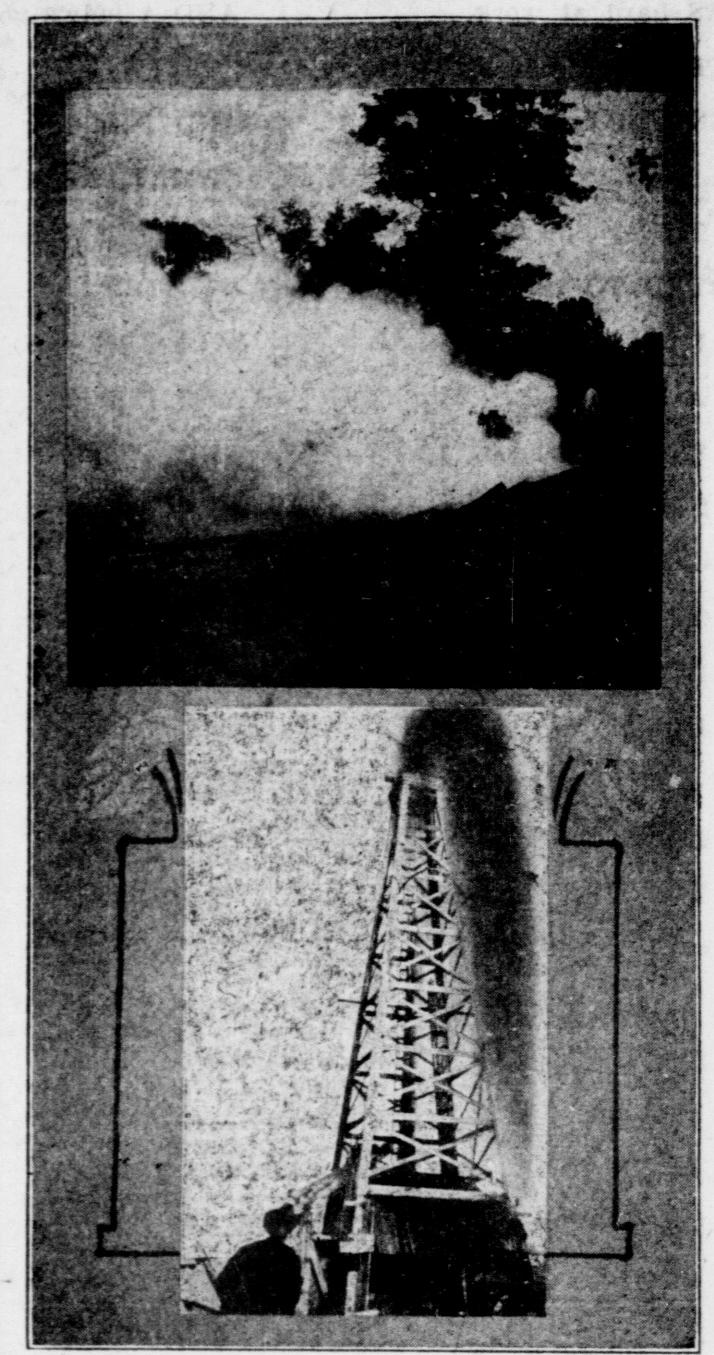

Ada has the East Central State Normal, one of the best educational institutions to be found anywhere, high school, four ward schools and bonds voted for another. Practically all the religious denominations are represented and the moral atmosphere is all that could possibly be desired. We have a modern hospital and all other conveniences found in any up-to-date city and it was all acquired in the short span of eighteen years.

Ada is the county seat of Pontotoc county, one of the richest agricultural and mineral counties in the state, and ere long is to erect a county court house second to none in the state.

Providence has smiled abundantly and profusely upon this section, and nature has provided us with every natural resource that man could desire.

TYPICAL ADA RESIDENCES

AMERICAN OIL & REFINING CO. WELL NO. 1 (HAMPTON FARM) AND SAME WELL ON FIRE.

Pontotoc County Agriculturally Speaking

Pontotoc County, of which Ada is the County Seat, is the most diversified county in the State agriculturally. The rainfall is around thirty-five inches a year. Corn grows from thirty to sixty bushels an acre. Cotton averages more than a half bale to the acre and the maximum yield of the state in 1915 was near Ada. Peanuts, Sweet Clover, Alfalfa, Sorghum, Kafir Corn, Milo Maize, Susan, Millet, Fruits, Garden Crops, Water Melons, Cantaloupes, and a host of other crops thrive. The northern part of the county is composed of a sandy loam, suitable for Sweet Soratoes. Peanuts, Cotton and Millet. From Ada south is black land for Corn, Cotton and the various pasture grasses. In the extreme southern part are rolling prairies which have never been broken. Here the finest ranches in the state can be found.

The livestock industry is improving. More than five hundred head of registered cattle have been brought into the county within the last six months. Registered hogs are numerous. Home-owners are out of debt and prosperous.

The poultry products of the county alone each year run close to $1,000,000.

Much of the land is for sale at a fair price. For the man of moderate means looking for a larger farm or for an opportunity to deal in livestock, this county offers wonderful opportunities.

AGRICULTURE IN PONTOTOC COUNTY

More Industries Needed!

AND because more industries are needed this page in the News is addressed to the stranger in other states. The News finds its way to the congested centers of the East, and it is to the manufacturers of the East that we are turning in an effort to arouse them to the wonderful opportunities awaiting them in God's great outdoors in Oklahoma, the most lavishly blessed state in the Union for natural resources and opportunities.

We need cotton mills; shoe factories; shirt and overall factories; harness factories; packing houses; smelters, and a dozen and one other factories and industrial institutions that appreciate being close to the raw material, appreciate the advantages of natural gas at cheap rates for fuel, and where labor can be had at reasonable rates.

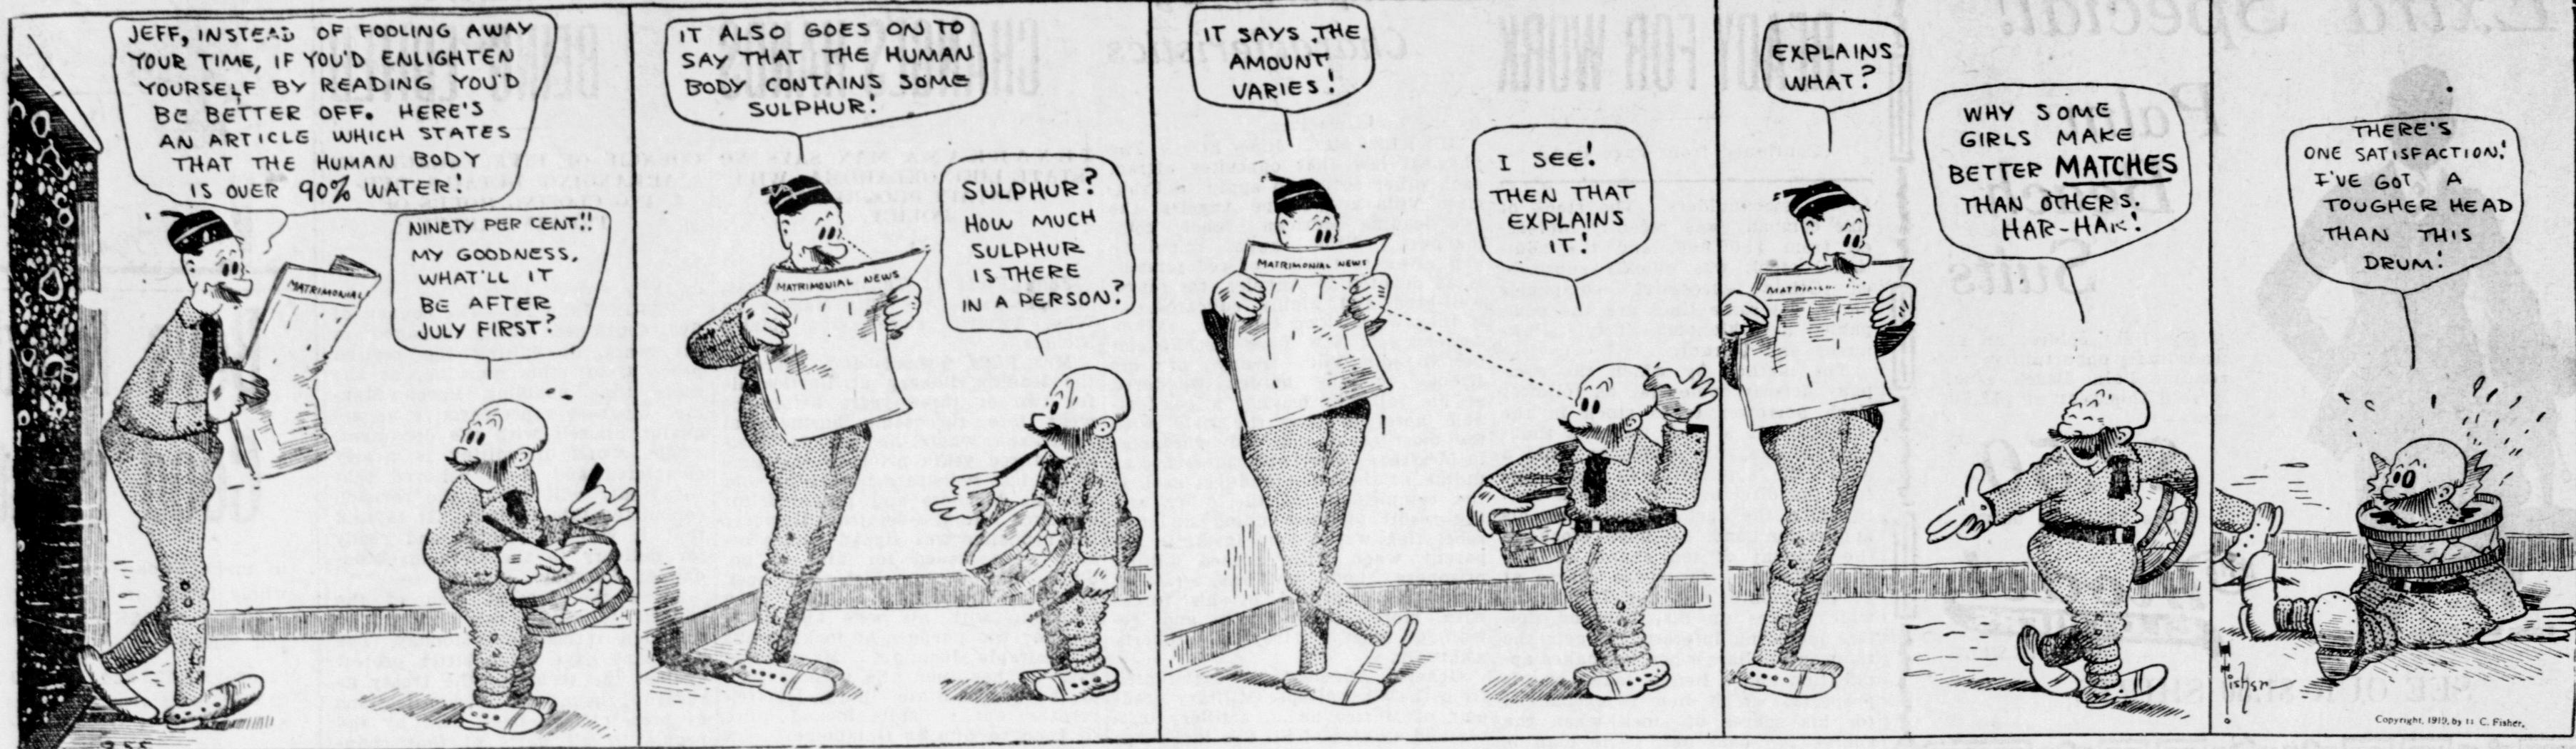

Why not leave the maddening throngs of the congested centers? Why not come where the turmoil and strife of labor wars are unknown? Why not get in touch with the wide, wide world, where people breathe easy and enjoy the bounties of life as God intended they should?

Ada has factory sites to give away to the right kind of industries; we have propositions to offer men in every line of business and in all walks of life; we welcome competition, rather than fear it, and the latch string is always on the outside.

Ada has a Lions' Club and a live Chamber of Commerce with a paid secretary, whose duty it is to inform you of all the facts you would naturally like to have were you seeking a new location. If you want more information about this city, county and state, write the secretary, Mr. O. N. Walker, and the information will be forthcoming. Do it today, lest you forget!

Remember Ada, The "Double A" City!

FRIENDS AND PATRONS:

The statements I have made show you that some of my troubles result from the demand of ice delivery in such small quantities, that the price we get does not pay for the service—you want your ice delivered by noon, which means that we must have enough delivery outfits to cover the entire city in the forenoon, thus doubling the quantity that would be needed if the deliveries were distributed throughout the day, and doubling the cost of service.

The Government Food Administration, after investigating these matters, recommended the elimination of number of wasteful methods in order to avoid the necessity of increasing the price of ice, especially to working people and small consumers. These recommendations will work to your benefit, and among them are these:

That ice be distributed upon coupons to all customers as nearly as possible.

That a large part of the small sales be made from local ice boxes, or at the wagon instead of attempting delivery into houses.

These rules enable them to maintain service, and give good values, and benefits the customer, and are based upon years of experience of the people in the industry.

Also, special deliveries to residences which cost always more than the amount realized from the sale are entirely discontinued except in case of sickness.

This is the help we ask of you now: namely, BUY COUPONS, and for minimum quantities of 25 pounds—as much more as you can afford.

DISLOYALTY CASE COMING UP SOON

BIG FORTHCOMING DISLOYALTY CASE WILL ATTRACT ATTENTION OF PEOPLE THROUGHOUT COUNTRY.

By the Associated Press
JACKSON, Minn., June 14.—The trial of A. C. Townley, president of the National Nonpartisan League, and Joseph Gilbert, on the charge of having violated the espionage act before the close of the war, set for opening here June 23, is beginning to attract the attention of radicals in all parts of the country thus far in advance.

President A. C. Townley of the National Nonpartisan League and Joseph Gilbert, a league organizer were indicted by a Jackson county grand jury on charges of conspiracy to defeat the purpose of the selective draft law. Gilbert was specifically charged with having made disloyal utterances in an address at Lakefield, Minn., on January 23, 1917. Townley was charged with having conspired to use Nonpartisan League literature in violation of the espionage act.

The convention of the Nonpartisan League at St. Paul in September, 1917, which was addressed by Senator Robert M. LaFollette and which adopted a declaration of Nonpartisan League principles, was investigated by a grand jury of Martin county, at Fairmont, Minn., as well as by the Jackson county grand jury.

Townley was indicted on March 12, 1918, by the Martin county grand jury for being responsible for the declarations, which dealt chiefly with the high cost of living and various economic phases of national government. The state supreme court squashed the Martin county indictments on the grounds that the resolutions were not in themselves disloyal.

"The resolutions, taken as a whole, appear to be nothing more serious than rhetorical and somewhat flamboyant platform on which a certain class of citizens are solicited to join an organization whose avowed purpose is the amelioration of alleged evils of present economic conditions," said the defense.

The Jackson county indictments were returned after the Martin county grand jury had returned its true bill. They charged that Townley and Gilbert also were responsible for the activities in Jackson county of Irving Freitag. It was charged he circulated Nonpartisan League literature, including the convention declarations, to injure the Liberty bond campaign and to interest farmers in the Nonpartisan League co-operative elevator plan.

Townley and Gilbert filed demurrers to the indictments in district court at Jackson. Townley took the position that the indictments against him did not embrace a specific offense and did not indicate the commission of any crime against the government. Gilbert declared that grand jury allegations regarding statements credited to him in his speech at Lakefield were distorted.

The district court judge dismissed the demurrer and appeal was taken to the state supreme court, which also decided against the defendants, and the case was remanded to the district court of Jackson county for trial.

The supreme court held that the crime of conspiracy may be committed without completion of the act which was the subject of the conspiracy and declared further that if Gilbert made the statements at Lakefield which were charged against him he had been guilty of sedition. Gilbert denied having made the statements as worded in the Jackson county grand jury report, which included:

"All these young men in North Dakota and Minnesota ought to be left on the farm."

"The boys shouldn't be taken into the army. They are better off Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When I was about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly . . . Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then . . . it would last . . . two weeks, and was so weakening and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three . . . I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children . . . Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years. Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

Most of these "wonderful" tonics and "mastermedicines" make the patient feel temporarily better from the stimulating effect while at the same time they are undermining health.

"Number 40 For The Blood" contains but 9 per cent. alcohol and you can not drink it "ad libitum." One teaspoonful is a dose for an adult. It is an old doctor's prescription and has been successfully employed in blood poison, mercurial and lead poisoning, scrofula, rheumatism, catarrh, constipation, liver and stomach troubles. Normal Notes

County Superintendent A. Floyd delivered an inspiring address at the chapel hour this morning. He appealed to the teachers, especially those in Pontotoc county, to raise the standard of scholarship in their several communities. He urged the teachers to get the best education for themselves and then to transmit that knowledge to those with whom they came in contact. He stated that the school boards are generally willing to help the teachers in establishing libraries, drinking fountains, etc., and told the teachers to get the benefit of all these advantages when possible.

Coming entertainments at the Normal announced at chapel this morning were the recital by Miss Natalie Draper Manville, Monday night; a program by local musicians next Thursday night and the Normal picture show next Friday night.

There is such a crowd attending the Normal this summer that the building will not hold them and the Willard school on East Tenth is being used as the training school building.

The attendance at the Normal continues to grow. Today they had registered 880 pupils. This is only 36 below the high water mark of the college, which was in the summer of 1916. That summer was President Gordon's first session as head of the institution. The authorities state they expect the enrollment this summer yet to pass that of 1916.

The sidewalk from the Normal to President Gordon's home has been finished and adds much to the comfort and appearance of South Francis along which it runs.

President Gordon paid a glowing tribute to the Ada News in his talk at chapel this morning. He stated that when Mutt and Jeff were added to the paper that was the finishing touch in making it a metropolitan paper of the first magnitude. He urged the teachers to read the news.

"L. of J." Hike.
Yesterday the "L. of J." boys spent the afternoon hiking. They first met at the First Christian church, where Mr. West took their picture. They left about 2:30 and went to Rock Crossing or near there and spent several enjoyable hours in the water. There were forty-two boys in the crowd, everyone a member of the "L. of J.", some having become members just yesterday. The organization now has forty-five boys in it. We had our lunches with us, and each boy ate whenever he felt like it. Some of them felt like it a good deal of the time.

The next meeting will be held at the church Monday evening at 5 o'clock. All members are urged to be present. Inquiries about this organization may be directed to C. V. Dunn, minister of the First Christian Church, phone 246 or 94.

Giving and Doing.

It is the giving up of life that saves it. When we stop calling it our own, seeking to hoard it and enrich it for ourselves, and begin bestowing it in loving interest and service upon others, we find that it has suddenly become richer and stronger than ever before.

to the stockholders. The stock of this company was recently increased from $500,000, and the additional stock was quickly subscribed. Other successful companies along the same lines are the companies at Oklahoma City, Pawhuska and Durant.

The method by which the company acts is somewhat as follows: Each borrower takes stock in the company. If a man wants a thousand dollars with which to build a house the application is placed before the directors. If he is a worthy man they act favorably on his application and he buys stock to the amount of ten shares at $72 each. He pays for these shares at $1 per month each for 72 months which takes up his thousand dollars including interest. He gets the thousand dollars when he makes application and a lien is taken on his property, which lien is exchanged for his shares of stock when the shares are paid out. The plan is very simple and the idea is to encourage men to build homes and furnish them with practically the whole amount of money needed at a low rate of interest.

Those people who have not yet subscribed for stock in the Ada company should "get a move on" and do so. The company has an authorized capital of $500,000, but they are only trying to place $250,000 now, and $225,000 of this has already been subscribed. It is as safe an investment as a national bank. In fact statistics show that less loan companies go into bankruptcy than do national banks. It encourages men to save, and those who invest in it can draw their money out at any time by giving notice as in savings banks. The Federal government is lending every assistance possible to building associations and to help the cause along both state and federal governments are permitting them to run without taxation. Another feature is that Congress is soon to enact a Building and Loan Bank law which will establish banks to help home building similar to the Federal Reserve Banks over the country. In this bank our local company could buy $1000 of their stock and secure as much as $20,000 in accommodations.

The Home Loan and Building Association of Ada, is supported by the leading business and professional men of the city. Two men, P. A. Norris and R. W. Simpson, took as much of the stock as the by-laws will allow, $10,000 each. All the banks in the city are represented on the board of directors and the business will be as sound as if it were a government institution. When the directors meet next week it is expected that R. W. Simpson will be made president and men of his ability and worth will fill the other offices after which time applications for loans will be received.

The directors of the local company are as follows: R. W. Simpson, P. A. Norris, C. H. Rives, Clyde Randel, M. R. Chilcott, M. C. Wilson, R. E. Blanks, W. H. Ebey, F. J. McFarland, W. L. Whitaker, W. J. Coffman, John P. McKinley is acting as secretary until a permanent secretary is chosen.

An article in another column shows that 70 per cent of the citizens of Ada already own their homes and with such an organization as the Home Building and Loan Association in our midst there is no reason why the other 30 per cent cannot get into the home owning class. Why not make Ada the best home owning city in the state? Now is the time to act, if you want to build or if you want to save.

Mexican Rebels Compared By Characteristics

By the Associated Press

JUAREZ, Mex., June 14.—The physical law that opposites attract each other seems to apply to Francisco Villa and Felipe Angeles, the two leading Mexican rebel commanders. Villa rough, impulsive and given to flashes of red temper, as devoted to Angeles, the suave, well-bred and highly educated, as they were blood brothers. When Angeles left New York last November to join Villa many of his friends on the border wondered whether his folly in leaving a comfortable hotel to take the field with the most rough-and-ready character in Mexico. The two leaders are as unlike as the poles and yet each is the complement of the other and the result of their union under a rebel flag was almost instantly apparent when Villa ceased killing prisoners and civilians, treated Americans captured by his forces with more consideration and restrained from destroying property wantonly.

General Angeles was graduated from the Chapultepec Military academy of Mexico as an artillery officer and studied at St. Cyr in France under master artillerists. He was an observer at many European maneuvers and wrote many pamphlets on artillery fire. He joined the Madero revolution and, later the constitutional movement under Carranza. When Villa broke with Carranza the prospect of action with Villa lured Angeles to his side and together they conducted an aggressive campaign in the north which has such a disastrous ending at the battle of Celaya. After this Angeles deserted Villa, bought a dairy in the El Paso valley and announced his intention of retiring from Mexican military and political affairs. When the European war broke out he went to New York as an inspector of shells for the French government and quit this to rejoin Villa in Mexico.

Even in the field Angeles shaves daily, wears clean linen and carries a toilet kit on an extra pack mule. Villa prefers a flannel shirt and a soft collar to starched linen, shaves at rare intervals when in the field and wears "hand-me-down" suits and square-toed shoes.

To an American held prisoner in Villa's camp General Angeles confided that Villa had almost ruined his chances of ever regaining the good will of Americans by his treatment of native and foreign prisoners and that he, Angeles, has persuaded Villa to observe the rules of civilized warfare to make friends for him and for his cause in the United States. The only time Villa has deviated from this program was at Parrel where he executed six Chinese because he found them armed, and the three Herreras, against whom he had a grudge of long standing.

To another American prisoner, Villa extended a blanket invitation to any Americans who wished to visit him in his rebel camps in the field. To date no one has accepted this invitation.

CITY BAKERY CHANGES HANDS

TEXARKANA MAN SAYS NO STATE LIKE OKLAHOMA; WILL MAINTAIN PROGRESSIVE POLICY.

John Fiala of Texarkana, Texas, has purchased the City Bakery on West Twelfth street from Malco Nichols.

Mr. Fiala owned and operated the leading Bakery at Bartlesville for two or three years before he went into the same business at Texarkana where he was in business three years prior to the time of the last registration when he sold out his business and prepared for entrance into the service. However the armistice was signed before orders were issued for him to go. Since that time, which has been about ten months, he has been traveling with his wife and little girl for the purpose of looking out a desirable location. Mr. Fiala says he has seen the greater part of the United States in the last ten months, but no state looked quite so good to him as Oklahoma.

During the time Mr. Nichols has operated the City Bakery, he has given splendid service and the people of Ada sincerely hope he will remain in some kind of business in this city.

THE NONPARTISAN LEAGUE PROGRAM

TEST WILL COME WHEN REFERENDUM ELECTION IS HELD ON LEAGUE'S VARIOUS MEASURES.

By the Associated Press

FARGO, N. D., June 14.—The first direct test of the National Non-Partisan League's industrial program will take place June 26 when a special referendum election will be held on seven of the league's measures passed by the North Dakota legislature.

Interest eventers chiefly upon the industrial commission bill and the act providing for establishment of the Bank of North Dakota, both of which are vital to the entire program.

The industrial commission bill provides for a commission which would control the state-owned industries to be established. The Bank of North Dakota would provide funds for carrying out the program. League supporters say failure of either measure would disrupt the program.

The other bills to be voted upon deal with education, taxation, state printing, emigration and judicial redistricting.

The referendum election was called by Governor Frazier after circulation of petitions by the Independent Voters' association. The Association also circulated petitions for the initiation of a mill and elevator association law, a non-partisan election law, rural credits law and a home building law, the initiative election to be held simultaneously with the referendum. These measures, with the exception of the non-partisan election law, are included in the league program.

The initiative petitions contained more than twice the number of signatures necessary but Governor Frazier held that the association's effort to have the referendum and initiative held on the same date was merely an attempt to confuse the issue. Then he named June 26 as the date for the referendum. The constitution requires that initiative petitions be filed ninety days before an election. The initiative petitions were not filed until late in April.
